

A SHORT ANSWER

To the QUERIES of the Cobler and his Patrons.

DID your old Member Lord JOHN CAVENDISH behave most honourably to you, when in the House of Commons he declared he had Instructions from his Constituents in his Pocket—but he should pay no Regard to them?—See Debates upon the Receipt Tax—Will not you behave Most shabbily—to Desert Lord Gallway, who generously appeared at your Requisition—to rescue the Freemen from an Arbitrary Appointment—of a Candidate—When Sir William Milner REFUSED your Address for that Purpose?

Did not Lord Gallway prove the high Estimation in which he held your Conduct—by his general Call upon the Poor and Industrious Freemen, to receive the most essential Proof of his Gratitude.?

Were not a great Number of those who, under the Description of providing Decently for their Family, take the Gratuity—and Basely enter into the Support of his Opponents? Ask Mr. SHERIFF ATKINSON's List of Claimants.

Are you sure that any Man was struck off the List by Lord Gallway; if not, how is he answerable for the Mistakes of others?

Did not Lord John Cavendish desert you for a Place in the Exchequer?—and when reinstated by your Suffrages, did he not treat you with the most consummate Contempt?

Is it not a Proof of Lord Gallway's Attachment to the Interests of his Constituents, that he prefers his Seat in the House of Commons here—where you are alone concerned?—to an Hereditary Seat in the Irish House of Lords?

Is it a Proof that Sir WILLIAM MILNER will serve you FAITHFULLY—when he associates with a Man who has declared himself, in the clearest Manner, against a Reform in Parliament—the Support of which Reform is held forth by Sir WILLIAM as the strongest Proof he can give of the Rectitude of his Intentions?

Is it not a known Fact, that Sir CHARLES TURNER's Executor gave the fullest Assurance of Support to Lord GALLWAY, on any future Occasion, at the Election Dinner at Mr. Bluitt's?

Is it not a Proof of a bad Cause, or a weak Support—when the Men of presumed Sense and Consequence in this City are reduced to Sophistry and Untruth to bias the Minds of the Honest and Independent Freemen against Lord GALLWAY and Mr. MILNES—who seek not Support from any other than THEIR HONEST AND INDEPENDENT FELLOW CITIZENS?
